

UMCOR Sunday is this weekend.

UMCOR Sunday: March 11, 2018

On this Special Sunday, we support UMCOR in their mission to act as the arms and legs of Christ's church, moving toward the most vulnerable in their darkest days. All gifts received on UMCOR Sunday ensures that all future gifts designated to specific programs can go 100% to those in need because UMCOR's basic expenses are covered.

A Special Thank You

The lovely thank you card above was received this week with the following sentiment. Thank you to all of our CUMC family that extended warm hospitality:

Jeff,

Words cannot express our thanks for all you did to make our Requiem performance a success. We could not have asked for a more perfect venue for the performance. Thank you for everything.

With Immense Gratitude,

Ken and Krystle

Help Paper Cranes Take Flight

The Legend of 1000 Cranes states that whoever folds 1000 origami cranes will receive a sense of peace and serenity in their hearts. Miriam Yarger will be folding 1000 cranes to create a mural as a part of the Humanities Academy at her high school. Each crane will have a name written inside of it. Each person named on a crane will receive a portion of the peace and serenity that forms after all the cranes have been folded.

CUMC members and friends are invited to submit as many names as they wish on the forms across from Jeff's office. Names may also be submitted by email to Gingerdog555@gmail.com. The names can be of people alive or no longer living. You may also submit the name of a pet, alive or no longer living.
