

Chatham United Methodist Church Annual Harvest Fair

WHEN: Saturday, September 25th 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Chatham United Methodist Church Front Lawn & Rodda Hall

After a rousing success with the 2009 Harvest Fair, the CUMC decided to start a new tradition of hosting an Annual Harvest Fair. The Harvest Fair capitalizes on the beauty of small-community living – bringing fun and games, fabulous local vendors, and talented local music to the community. The event also includes a petting zoo, pony rides, arts & crafts – and, of course, food!

“This will be a celebration for all generations – a true family event,” says Kate Davis, co-chair of CUMC UMW. “We’re inviting all of our family, friends and neighbors to join us for the fun.”

The activities are scheduled from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Sat., Sept. 25, on the front lawn of Chatham United Methodist Church located at 460 Main Street, Chatham, NJ. Parking will be available behind the church.

About CUMC:- Chatham United Methodist Church strives in our ministry to touch the lives of people of all ages, from infants to older adults. Our caring witness to God's love is performed by clergy and support staff, supported by a strong lay leadership and ministry. We seek to make the teachings of scripture relevant to the issues of our day, in a way that enables us all to be inspired and directed to action in our own lives, our families, and our world.
